A status conference was held in the above captioned case on April 23, 2007. Certain parties represented to the court that

1 they are close to reaching a settlement agreement. Several 2 parties requested the case be stayed and three parties objected
3 to a stay. In an effort to encourage settlement, the court will 4 stay the case for six weeks. At the next status conference, the 5 parties who have not settled should be prepared to set dates for 6 the close of discovery, pre-trial and trial. Accordingly, the 7 court orders as follows:

8 1. The stay heretofore ordered is continued.

9 2. A status conference is hereby SET for June 11, 2007 at 10 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 4.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.
